

This list of requirements is from the TRUST Handbook (#33154), 2005 printing. It is provided for the sole purpose of offering Venturers and Advisors the ability to preview the award and is not a replacement for the Handbook. To earn the award, using the Handbook is necessary, as additional information and resources needed to earn the award are contained therein.

Note: The Religious and Community Life Award was formerly known as Youth Ministries or Religious Life.

RELIGIOUS AND COMMUNITY LIFE BRONZE AWARD

Do nine of the following:

1. Receive the religious emblem appropriate to your age and religious affiliation.
2. Serve as a volunteer with a community organization for at least three months. Keep a journal of your experiences and how they affect your thoughts on community. After the three months, share your experiences and how you feel about your service and what it means to be part of your community with others.
3. Serve as a volunteer in your place of worship for at least three months. Keep a journal of your experiences and how they affect your religious beliefs. After the three months, share your experiences and how you feel about your service and your religious beliefs with others.
4. Participate in a discussion about cultural diversity with your crew, religious youth group, or other appropriate group. Make a presentation or tabletop display using the information you learned in the discussion, or invite someone from a different cultural background from yours and the majority of your crew's members to give a presentation on a subject of his or her choosing.
5. Plan and lead a service project such as helping to build a Habitat for Humanity house, participating in a community cleanup project, or taking on a fix-up project for a nursing home or daycare facility.
6. Go on a religious retreat or religious trek lasting at least two days.
7. Produce or be a cast member in some type of entertainment production with a religious or ethical theme, such as a play, a puppet show, or concert for a group such as a children's group, retirement home, homeless shelter, or Cub Scout or Boy Scout group.

8. Serve as a president, leader, or officer of the youth group at your school or religious institution.
9. Complete a Standard First Aid or higher course or its equivalent.
10. Lead or be on the staff of an Ethics Forum for your crew, your youth group, or your school class. Participate in at least two Ethical Controversies activities as a participant. Be a facilitator for at least two Ethical Controversies activities for your crew, another crew, your school class, a Boy Scout troop, or another group.
11. Serve as a teacher or an assistant to a teacher for a children's class at your religious institution or an education institution (public school, daycare, or nursery) for at least two months.
12. Meet with your religious leader to explore his/her duties, the preparation necessary to assume those duties, and what he/she believes is the most important element of the position.